Overview: Ezekiel 1-33

Among the exiles in Babylon, Ezekiel shows that Israel deserved this judgment, and also that God's justice creates hope for the future.

The Book of Ezekiel can seem vague and confusing for some readers, but with careful observation, it contains key details God wants us to know about. Many of the divine visions that Ezekiel shares are relevant to God's plans for reconstructing the present world and restoring His people to our former days in the Garden of Eden.
