Attributes of Holiness

At the very center of God's moral perfection shines the radiant attribute of holiness.

This category reveals the flawless integrity and ethical purity of our God. While His sovereignty displays His supreme rule and His love reveals His benevolent heart, His holiness shows us that He is utterly separate from all sin and perfectly righteous in every way.

These five attributes — Holy, Righteous, Just, Faithful, and Absolute Truth — form the moral foundation of His character. They declare that God is not only great in power, but perfectly good in all His ways. In a world filled with moral confusion and compromise, God's holiness stands as the unchanging standard of what is right, true, and pure.

God Is Holy

He is perfectly pure and set apart from all sin.

Because God is holy, I can pursue purity in my thoughts and actions, approaching Him with reverent awe.

God Is Righteous

All His ways and decisions are morally perfect.

Because God is righteous, I can strive to reflect His moral perfection in my daily conduct and relationships.

God Is Just

He renders perfect fairness in every judgment.

Because God is just, I can act with fairness and integrity, trusting Him to right every wrong in His perfect time.

God Is Faithful

He never fails to keep His promises or covenants.

Because God is faithful, I can remain steadfast in my commitments, modeling His reliability in my relationships.

God Is Absolute Truth

He is the source and unchanging standard of all truth.

Because God is absolute truth, I can speak and live with honesty, anchoring my life to His unchanging Word.

These attributes of holiness together paint a breathtaking portrait of a God who is morally flawless. His holiness is not cold or distant — it is the beautiful light that exposes darkness, calls us to purity, and draws us near through the cleansing work of Christ.

To understand God's holiness is to be humbled by His perfection and comforted by His grace. It invites us not only to worship Him, but to reflect His holy character in our daily lives — pursuing integrity, justice, faithfulness, and truth in a world that desperately needs to see them.
