Father, Jesus, the Holy Spirit and You (emphasis on unity vs three different acts)

Our new life in Christ is profoundly supernatural because it draws us into intimate fellowship with the entire Triune God—the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This is not a distant or abstract relationship but a dynamic, daily reality. “Our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ” (1 John 1:3), and this fellowship occurs in and through the Holy Spirit. The Christian life is not following rules or attending services; it is participating in the very life of God Himself.

As one God, we relate to each Person of the Trinity in fundamentally similar ways. To obey the Son means obeying the Father because Jesus and the Father are one (John 10:30). We are in Christ (Romans 8:1) and the Holy Spirit dwells in us (1 Corinthians 3:16). Both Jesus and the Holy Spirit intercede for us before the Father—Jesus at the right hand of God (Romans 8:34) and the Spirit with wordless groans (Romans 8:27).

Yet we also relate to the Triune God in distinct yet harmonious ways that form the rhythm of a mature Christian life. Walking with God is a lifestyle of submitting to the Father’s will, abiding in Jesus, and being filled with the Holy Spirit.

Submitting to the Father means surrendering our plans, desires, and ambitions to His perfect will, knowing that He is our Heavenly Father, Almighty Creator, and Sovereign King who alone has the right to rule over us and deserves our complete love, devotion, and allegiance. Jesus modeled this perfectly in the Garden of Gethsemane: “Not my will, but yours be done” (Luke 22:42). The Father is portrayed as the wise Gardener who prunes and cares for us so we can bear fruit (John 15:1-2).

Abiding in Jesus is the secret to intimacy and fruitfulness. Jesus commands, “Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine” (John 15:4). He is the true Vine; we are the branches. Abiding involves spending time in His presence through prayer, worship, and His words, obeying His commands, and imitating Him in every way.

Being filled with the Holy Spirit is being influenced by the Holy Spirit. Just as Jesus was full of the Spirit (Luke 4:1) to live a radically different Kingdom life, revealing who God the Father is and ushering in His Kingdom, we can live Christianly only when we are led and empowered by the Holy Spirit.

When we embrace this unified yet distinct relationship with the Triune God, we will experience the abundant life Jesus promised. Challenges become opportunities to depend on the Father's wisdom, Jesus' sustaining grace, and the Spirit's power. Daily decisions are filtered through submission, abiding, and filling.

Ultimately, the Trinity invites us into divine communion. The eternal and perfect love that flows between the Father, the Son, and the Spirit —the unbreakable bond of mutual delight, self-giving, and joyful fellowship—is extended to us. Through the finished work of Christ and the regenerating power of the Holy Spirit, we are drawn into this holy relationship. What was once reserved for the Godhead alone now becomes our inheritance as adopted sons and daughters of God.

Being accompanied by this divine fellowship means that we are not passive spectators. We have been summoned to participate in the mission of the Triune God. The Father sends, the Son redeems, and the Spirit empowers and equips. We are now ambassadors for Christ and His Kingdom (2 Corinthians 5:18–20) as well as the beloved sons and daughters of the King. Our lives, empowered by the indwelling Spirit and rooted in union with Christ, play an indispensable role in Father's master plan to bring God's Kingdom back on earth as it is in heaven.
