Give Them What They Need

10 Building Blocks for Maturity are vital for balanced spiritual growth. They help believers intentionally strive to become more like Jesus. These reflective questions help you discern what people may need most at this time.

1. Seeing Life from God's Perspective: Are they viewing circumstances through a worldly perspective instead of God's character and purposes? [\[more\]](#)
2. Growing Closer to God: Do they prioritize religious activity over cultivating a living, affectionate relationship with the Lord? [\[more\]](#)
3. Becoming the New You: Are they still holding onto their old self-image and past failures instead of embracing their new identity in Christ? [\[more\]](#)
4. Walking by the Spirit: Is their life defined by self-effort, or do they demonstrate a vital reliance on the Holy Spirit's guidance and power in their daily lives? [\[more\]](#)
5. Receiving Insights from God: Are Scripture and mind renewal central, or are they more shaped by popular opinion and personal preference than by God's Word? [\[more\]](#)
6. Obedying God Faithfully: Is there a significant gap between what is known and practiced—areas of compromise, selective obedience, or hesitation to fully follow Christ? [\[more\]](#)
7. Living as God's Family: Do they show genuine care and support for their church family, or do they exhibit isolation and superficial connections? [\[more\]](#)
8. Reaching the World: Are they primarily focused on themselves, or is there an emphasis on sharing the gospel and making disciples? [\[more\]](#)
9. Resisting the Enemy: Are they alert to spiritual opposition, or do they seem discouraged and easily distracted by temptation and accusation? [\[more\]](#)
0. Pursuing God's Master Plan: Do they feel their lives have a purposeful direction under God's guidance, or do they seem uncertain about their calling and how to use their gifts for His glory? [\[more\]](#)

These questions are meant to encourage careful observation and discernment, not quick judgments. As the Holy Spirit provides clarity, the foundational element that emerges can guide teaching and discipleship in this season.
