Why This Kit Exists

"I pastored a church full of churchgoers, not disciples."

Pastor Assah of Togo names what many churches live with: people who attend, and few who are being formed as disciples of Jesus.

Discipleship programs often emphasize biblical knowledge, behavioral change, and spiritual disciplines. JO EQUIP honors those essentials and starts one step earlier: heart transformation through identity-centered discipleship.

Heart Transformation Through Identity-Centered Discipleship

Identity-centered heart transformation starts in the inner person, not with trying harder on the outside. The biblical heart is the control center of beliefs, loves, trust, and choices. From it flow words, desires, and actions. God renews that heart as three realities are embraced together: who you now are in Christ, who God actually is, and how the Holy Spirit functions in daily life. How you view each of those identities either frees a new life or leaves the old life in charge.

Discipleship Moments

This kit helps foster a culture of life transformation by moving people from passive listeners to active doers. Each Moment introduces one key truth concisely, so it can slip into a service, a small group, or a conversation. It is a spoken doorway into the full training—not a replacement for it.

Discipleship Moments are standardized and systematic because effective discipleship must be reproducible.

> "And what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful people who will be able to teach others also" (2 Timothy 2:2).

Standardized training enables more people to teach what they have learned more readily. A systematic progression in discipleship provides a clear pathway for people to grow from spiritual birth toward maturity in Christ (Colossians 1:28).

You Can Start Immediately

This kit gives one five-minute moment: one message, one assignment, and one next step. Week 1 is this Sunday.

> "I pastored a church full of churchgoers, not disciples. … The Adventure of Living with Jesus discipleship booklet has transformed my life and my understanding about what it is to live for Christ. People are touched and amazed when I am teaching it to them."
> — Pastor Assah, Togo

Six weeks. After each Discipleship Moment, invite people to read that week's Beholding the Majesty of God chapter—in the book or on the JO App. The Moment opens the door. The chapter is where they walk through.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

A changed life follows a changed heart—and a changed heart begins with who you already are in Christ.

Identity-Centered Heart Transformation

These three focuses are not a program to complete. They are a continual diagnostic for the heart: who you now are in Christ, who God actually is, and how the Holy Spirit works in daily life. Use them on yourself first. Then use them with others. Full teaching is available on equip.jesusonline.com.

1 IDENTITY FOCUS

How you view your redeemed identity shapes how you live.

When you received Christ, you were not improved; you were made new. "If anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Cor. 5:17, NIV). God already sees you in Christ. Growth is learning to live as the person He has already made you. A weak view of that identity turns the Christian life into striving. A clear view turns it into alignment.

equip.jesusonline.com/categories/growth/identity-in-christ

2 GOD FOCUS

How you view God's divine identity shapes how you live.

A distorted view of His character produces a life different from what God envisioned for you; a true and balanced view does the opposite. You become like what you behold: "beholding the glory of the Lord, [we] are being transformed into the same image" (2 Cor. 3:18, ESV). Seeing only part of who God is warps the heart. Seeing Him as He is—holy and loving, just and merciful—forms worship, humility, and trust.

equip.jesusonline.com/categories/growth/attributes-of-god

3 SPIRIT FOCUS

How you view the Holy Spirit's functional identity shapes how you live.

If the Christian life is "me plus some help from God," the reflex will be self-effort—try harder, white-knuckle holiness. That is Galatians 3:3: After beginning by the Spirit, are you now finishing by the flesh? Full dependence on the Spirit is not passivity, but active trust. You still choose, confess, obey, and put off the old self as a new person empowered by on the Spirit who already lives in you.

equip.jesusonline.com/categories/growth/ministry-holy-spirit

Identity-centered heart transformation is not "change your behavior so you can feel like a new person." It is "embrace who you already are, know the God who said so, and depend on the Spirit who lives in you — then behavior follows a changed heart."

Identity precedes behavior. Transformation flows from what God has already done in Christ. A new kind of living becomes possible not by becoming someone else, but by living as the person God has already made you to be in Christ.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

That is identity-centered heart transformation: not becoming someone else, but living as the person God has already made you in Christ.

How to Use This Kit

Discipleship Moments are short training modules designed to help equip believers to become disciples. Use them as part of your Sunday service, small groups, chapel services, house church, or in one-on-one discipleship conversations. They do not replace the underlying training series. Each Moment is a "spoken" doorway into the more complete training.

Discipleship Moments from Beholding the Majesty of God focus on essential truths of the Christian walk.

Follow the five steps. You can read it as written or put it in your own words. Remember that the power to transform lives does not come from how well you deliver the material. Transformation comes from the Holy Spirit as people put God's truth into practice.

FIVE STEPS FOR THIS WEEK

1	Prepare your own heart Read Why This Kit Exists and the three Focus blocks until you can explain them naturally. Use them on yourself first.
2	Do not skip the doubter If someone is not sure Jesus is who He said He is, show them resources in "Do Not Skip the Doubter."
3	Lead this week's moment Keep the Moment to about 5 minutes. A video is additional and optional.
4	Send them out with one assignment Give this week's single practice before you dismiss. Ask them to come ready to share what happened.
5	Keep walking the Guide Use Beholding the Majesty of God alongside the Moment. The deeper work happens when people also read the chapter.

Do Not Skip the Doubter

JO EQUIP unites apologetics with identity-centered discipleship. Discipleship Moments assume a person has begun with Jesus. If someone is not sure Jesus is who He said—or not sure God is there at all—give them a different door. Use this page.

WEEK 1 OF 6

The Supreme Pursuit of the Heart

THEME VERSE

But let the one who boasts boast in this: that he understands and knows me.

— Jeremiah 9:24

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

What comes into your mind when you think about God is the most important thing about you. That is not only a profound truth but also a diagnosis. The picture you carry of God will shape how you pray, how you suffer, how you love, and how you face ordinary days of life. A small god makes a heart restless. A true vision of God sets it on a firm foundation.

This is the supreme pursuit of the heart: not merely to collect facts about God, but to understand and know Him. Bill Bright said the more we know about God, the more we will love Him, trust Him, and obey Him. J. I. Packer said that once you see that knowing God is the main business you are here for, most of life's problems fall into place. Knowledge that stays only in the mind can puff us up. Knowledge that reaches the heart becomes worship, trust, obedience, and peace.

Across these six weeks, we will look at twenty attributes of God, held in four groups: Self-Existence, Sovereignty, Holiness, and Love. These are not merely abstract ideas but living realities. They tell you who He is before you ask Him what He will do for you. They keep you from building a god out of the attributes you already like or a god created by social media and popular trends.

So the invitation this week is simple. Do not begin by asking God to fix the week. Begin by beholding the God who is worthy of your highest thought, your deepest love, and your most wholehearted devotion. Plunge yourself, as Spurgeon said, into the Godhead's deepest sea. The first work of the heart is not to manage God. It is to know Him.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

The heart's first work is not to manage God. It is to know Him.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Each morning this week, read Jeremiah 9:24 slowly. Then pray one sentence: "Lord, I want to know You as You are—not as I prefer You to be." Write one thought about God that shrank when you actually looked at Him.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Jeremiah 9:24. Ask: "What have I been boasting in besides knowing God?" Thank Him that He can be known. Pray the morning sentence once, slowly.

WEEK 2 OF 6

A Balanced Vision of God

THEME VERSE

Notice therefore the kindness and severity of God.

— Romans 11:22

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

To know God truly, we must know Him as He has revealed Himself and not as we prefer Him to be. Bill Bright named love, holiness, power, and faithfulness together. He did not call the church to a warmer god or a safer god. He called us to a fresh vision of the greatness and glory of God. When we see God as He really is, our problems shrink, and our faith grows. Notice the balance in that vision. A fresh vision is a whole vision.

Every believer is tempted to build a god from the attributes that feel safest. Some cling to love and set holiness aside, until God becomes only warmth without moral fire. Some exalt holiness and forget love, until God becomes only judgment without mercy. Some emphasize sovereignty until prayer feels pointless. Some dwell on self-existence until God seems distant and uninvolved. In each case, the distortion is the same. We are no longer beholding God. We are editing Him.

A partial view of God is not a smaller view of the same God. It is a different god. Love without holiness is sentiment. Holiness without love is severity. Sovereignty without goodness is tyranny. Goodness without sovereignty is a wish. Self-existence without nearness is an abstraction. Nearness without self-existence is an idol we can manage. The God of the Bible is one God. His attributes are not competing parts we rank. They are the undivided glory of who He is.

This book is arranged in four clusters. Hold only one cluster and worship tilts. Hold them together and worship deepens. The God who needs nothing still gives Himself. The God who rules freely still binds Himself by promise. The God who is holy through and through still pursues sinners. These tensions are not contradictions. This is the one true God. Let Scripture correct your vision until all attributes are held equally in divine tension.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

A partial view of God is not a smaller God. It is a different god.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Write two lists this week: attributes of God you easily love, and attributes you quietly avoid. Each day, read one verse that names an attribute you avoid. Thank God for that attribute by name.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Romans 11:22. Name one attribute you prefer and one you resist. Pray: "Lord, do not let me edit You. Show me who You are."

WEEK 3 OF 6

Attributes of Self-Existence

THEME VERSE

God said to Moses, "I AM that I AM."

— Exodus 3:14

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

Before we speak of what God does, we must stand still before who He is. God is self-existent. Eternal. Transcendent. Spirit. Unchanging. These five truths describe God in Himself. They would still be true if nothing else existed. He does not depend on the world in order to be God. He is the I AM. Creation did not complete Him. Time did not start Him. Matter does not contain Him. Change does not improve Him.

Self-existence is the fountainhead. God depends on nothing for His being. Eternality follows—He has no beginning or end. Transcendence follows—He is not a part of the universe He made. He is Spirit—not bound by matter, form, or place. He is unchanging—He does not grow, diminish, or become, because He is already complete. What sets this category apart is independence. The other three describe the God who relates to creation. This set of attributes establishes that He does not need creation in order to be God.

Picture a fountain that is not fed by hidden pipes. The water rises because it is water—never gathered, never replenished, never in danger of running dry. God is that Fountain. No spring lies behind Him. When you come empty, you are not coming to a cistern that waits on rain. You are coming to the God who has life in Himself and gives without first being supplied.

This is humility, and it is rest. Humility, because every breath is received. Rest, because the One who holds you is not Himself held by anything. The implications of His self-existence are far-reaching and staggering in scope. Because God is self-existent, you can fully depend on Him. Nothing influences Him. Nothing forces Him. Nothing limits Him. Nothing defines Him but He Himself.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

He does not need you in order to be God. That is why you can rest.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Each morning, pray: "You are the I AM. I depend on You." Then name one place you have been striving as if everything depended on you, and hand that place to Him.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Exodus 3:14. Sit for ten seconds without asking for anything. Then pray: "You are. I am not the source. I come to the Fountain."

WEEK 4 OF 6

Attributes of Sovereignty

THEME VERSE

The Lord has established his throne in heaven; his kingdom extends over everything.

— Psalm 103:19

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

Sovereignty names God's active relation to all He has made. He is Sovereign. All-powerful. All-knowing. Present everywhere. Free. These are truths about His capacity to govern the world. He rules. Omnipotence is the strength of that rule. Omniscience is the wisdom of that rule. Omnipresence is the reach of that rule. Freedom is the independence of that rule—He acts according to His own will and is not compelled by anything outside Himself.

What sets this category apart is ability exercised in authority. Holiness tells us His rule is pure. Love tells us His rule is good. Self-existence tells us His rule is not borrowed. Sovereignty tells us His rule is absolute. Nothing is outside His hand, His knowledge, His presence, or His free purpose. The throne is not vacant. It is not shared. It is established in heaven, and His kingdom extends over everything.

This is where many hearts stall. If God rules, why pray? If God already knows, why speak? Scripture never treats sovereignty as a reason to fall silent. On the contrary, sovereignty is the reason prayer is not wasted. You are not trying to inform a distracted King or persuade a weak one. You are coming to the One who can actually act, who sees the whole field, who is present in the place you fear, and who is free to do what is best.

So this week, do not use sovereignty to excuse passivity, and do not doubt the reach of His authority. Surrender your plans. Submit to His throne. Ask boldly. Then rest. Because God is sovereign, you can stop pretending you are in charge. His Kingdom extends over everything, including the part of your life you have been trying to keep in your own hands.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

Nothing is outside His hand. That does not silence prayer. It gives prayer somewhere to go.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Each morning, name one circumstance you cannot control. Say aloud: "You rule here." Then pray one honest request without trying to manage the outcome.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Psalm 103:19. Name the circumstance you cannot control. Pray: "You are King. I surrender this. Teach me to trust Your rule."

WEEK 5 OF 6

Attributes of Holiness

THEME VERSE

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord who commands armies! The whole earth is full of his glory.

— Isaiah 6:3

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

Holiness is God's moral perfection—His separation from all sin and His unwavering commitment to what is right. He is Holy. Righteous. Just. Faithful. Absolute Truth. Holiness is the radiant center: God is utterly set apart. Righteousness is holiness in His ways. Justice is holiness in His judgments. Faithfulness is holiness in His commitments. Absolute truth is holiness in His words. He does not lie. He does not bend. He does not call darkness light.

A vision of God that keeps love and drops holiness will not hold. The seraphim do not cry "Kind, kind, kind." They cry "Holy, holy, holy." Isaiah did not feel complimented in that light. He felt undone. That is not cruelty. That is the reality of a mortal encountering the Holy One. The same holy God then cleansed Isaiah and sent him. Holiness does not only expose. In mercy, it also purifies and calls.

This category protects you from creating a god who only soothes. The Holy One is faithful to His word. He is just when He judges. He is righteous in all His ways. He is truth when every other voice is negotiating. If He were less holy, His love would be less safe. A god who makes peace with evil cannot be trusted to save you from it.

So come near, but do not come carelessly. Confess what the light shows. Trust the God who is faithful to cleanse. Then walk as one who belongs to the Holy One. Because God is holy, any sin is not a small matter. And because God is holy, you are not left in the undoing. He still says, as He said to Isaiah, that guilty lips can be touched and a life can be sent.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

God is good not because He is safe and harmless but because He is holy.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Read Isaiah 6:1-8 once each day. Write one sentence: "Because God is holy, I will _____." Let the blank be concrete—speech, hidden habit, or a relationship that has grown casual toward sin.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Isaiah 6:3. Sit with the word holy said three times. Pray: "Set me apart with You. Do not let me treat sin as small."

WEEK 6 OF 6

Attributes of Love

THEME VERSE

God is love, and the one who resides in love resides in God, and God resides in him.

— 1 John 4:16

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

This set of attributes describes the same Holy God, giving Himself. He is Love. Merciful. Gracious. Good. Wise. God not only loves, but He is love. Mercy is love toward those in need. Grace is love toward the undeserving. Goodness is love in His gifts and His character. Wisdom is love that knows the right way and does not waste your life. Hold this cluster without the others, and God becomes sentiment. Hold it with the others, and you meet the Father who builds up.

Before we loved Him, He loved us. Before we were lovable, He loved us. In Christ He gives Himself—not a fraction of His attention, but His Son. Through the Spirit we are adopted and cry "Abba, Father." These acts of God are the relational depth of His self-giving love. The Independent One still gives. The reigning King still stoops. The Holy One still pursues to restore sinners.

This is what it means to live in the light of His majesty. The majesty of God expressed through these 20 attributes is not reserved for a life after death. It is the way of seeing God that follows you into work, into suffering, into the church, into the world, and into the faces you are given to love. When trouble comes, do not invent a smaller god that appears to fit your situation. Return to the whole vision: the Independent One, the reigning King, the Holy Judge, the Loving Savior—one true God.

Let study lead to worship. Let worship deepen trust. Let trust produce obedience. Let obedience express love. When the heart grows dull, open the Word and behold Him again. Ask the Spirit to make the knowledge of God experiential—seeing who God is in your everyday life. He is worthy—infinitely worthy—of your highest thought, your deepest love, and your most wholehearted devotion. Now go and live as those who have seen Him.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

Love is not a mood God enters when you become lovable. God is love.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Each morning, pray: "Father, You loved me first." Then take one concrete act of mercy toward someone who cannot repay you. Come ready to share what that act revealed about His heart.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read 1 John 4:16 and Jeremiah 9:24. Pray: "Let what I have seen of You become trust, then obedience, then love. I will live as one who has seen You."

Go Further

The Adventure of Living with Jesus begins this journey. It guides your initial steps. The series below help with deeper heart transformation as you continue for a longer stretch. These series explore different dimensions of your new life in Christ—your heart, your identity, the greatness of God, the Spirit's presence, and the habits of growing mature in Christ.

You do not have to use them in order. Begin with the series that meets the need of your current discipleship situation. Each series can be downloaded for free from the Leaders Kit: equip.jesusonline.com/leader-kits
