Why This Kit Exists

"I pastored a church full of churchgoers, not disciples."

Pastor Assah of Togo names what many churches live with: people who attend, and few who are being formed as disciples of Jesus.

Discipleship programs often emphasize biblical knowledge, behavioral change, and spiritual disciplines. JO EQUIP honors those essentials and starts one step earlier: heart transformation through identity-centered discipleship.

Heart Transformation Through Identity-Centered Discipleship

Identity-centered heart transformation starts in the inner person, not with trying harder on the outside. The biblical heart is the control center of beliefs, loves, trust, and choices. From it flow words, desires, and actions. God renews that heart as three realities are embraced together: who you now are in Christ, who God actually is, and how the Holy Spirit functions in daily life. How you view each of those identities either frees a new life or leaves the old life in charge.

Discipleship Moments

This kit helps foster a culture of life transformation by moving people from passive listeners to active doers. Each Moment introduces one key truth concisely, so it can slip into a service, a small group, or a conversation. It is a spoken doorway into the full training—not a replacement for it.

Discipleship Moments are standardized and systematic because effective discipleship must be reproducible.

> "And what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful people who will be able to teach others also" (2 Timothy 2:2).

Standardized training enables more people to teach what they have learned more readily. A systematic progression in discipleship provides a clear pathway for people to grow from spiritual birth toward maturity in Christ (Colossians 1:28).

You Can Start Immediately

This kit gives one five-minute moment: one message, one assignment, and one next step. Week 1 is this Sunday.

> "I pastored a church full of churchgoers, not disciples. … The Adventure of Living with Jesus discipleship booklet has transformed my life and my understanding about what it is to live for Christ. People are touched and amazed when I am teaching it to them."
> — Pastor Assah, Togo

Ten weeks. After each Discipleship Moment, invite people to read that week's Your New Identity in Christ chapter—in the book or on the JO App. The Moment opens the door. The chapter is where they walk through.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

A changed life follows a changed heart—and a changed heart begins with who you already are in Christ.

Identity-Centered Heart Transformation

These three focuses are not a program to complete. They are a continual diagnostic for the heart: who you now are in Christ, who God actually is, and how the Holy Spirit works in daily life. Use them on yourself first. Then use them with others. Full teaching is available on equip.jesusonline.com.

1 IDENTITY FOCUS

How you view your redeemed identity shapes how you live.

When you received Christ, you were not improved; you were made new. "If anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Cor. 5:17, NIV). God already sees you in Christ. Growth is learning to live as the person He has already made you. A weak view of that identity turns the Christian life into striving. A clear view turns it into alignment.

2 GOD FOCUS

How you view God's divine identity shapes how you live.

A distorted view of His character produces a life different from what God envisioned for you; a true and balanced view does the opposite. You become like what you behold: "beholding the glory of the Lord, [we] are being transformed into the same image" (2 Cor. 3:18, ESV). Seeing only part of who God is warps the heart. Seeing Him as He is—holy and loving, just and merciful—forms worship, humility, and trust.

equip.jesusonline.com/categories/growth/attributes-of-god

3 SPIRIT FOCUS

How you view the Holy Spirit's functional identity shapes how you live.

If the Christian life is "me plus some help from God," the reflex will be self-effort—try harder, white-knuckle holiness. That is Galatians 3:3: After beginning by the Spirit, are you now finishing by the flesh? Full dependence on the Spirit is not passivity, but active trust. You still choose, confess, obey, and put off the old self as a new person empowered by on the Spirit who already lives in you.

equip.jesusonline.com/categories/growth/ministry-holy-spirit

Identity-centered heart transformation is not "change your behavior so you can feel like a new person." It is "embrace who you already are, know the God who said so, and depend on the Spirit who lives in you — then behavior follows a changed heart."

Identity precedes behavior. Transformation flows from what God has already done in Christ. A new kind of living becomes possible not by becoming someone else, but by living as the person God has already made you to be in Christ.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

That is identity-centered heart transformation: not becoming someone else, but living as the person God has already made you in Christ.

How to Use This Kit

Discipleship Moments are short training modules designed to help equip believers to become disciples. Use them as part of your Sunday service, small groups, chapel services, house church, or in one-on-one discipleship conversations. They do not replace the underlying training series. Each Moment is a "spoken" doorway into the more complete training.

Discipleship Moments from Your New Identity in Christ focus on essential truths of the Christian walk.

Follow the five steps. You can read it as written or put it in your own words. Remember that the power to transform lives does not come from how well you deliver the material. Transformation comes from the Holy Spirit as people put God's truth into practice.

FIVE STEPS FOR THIS WEEK

1	Prepare your own heart Read Why This Kit Exists and the three Focus blocks until you can explain them naturally. Use them on yourself first.
2	Do not skip the doubter If someone is not sure Jesus is who He said He is, show them resources in "Do Not Skip the Doubter."
3	Lead this week's moment Keep the Moment to about 5 minutes. A video is additional and optional.
4	Send them out with one assignment Give this week's single practice before you dismiss. Ask them to come ready to share what happened.
5	Keep walking the Guide Use Your New Identity in Christ alongside the Moment. The deeper work happens when people also read the chapter.

Do Not Skip the Doubter

JO EQUIP unites apologetics with identity-centered discipleship. Discipleship Moments assume a person has begun with Jesus. If someone is not sure Jesus is who He said—or not sure God is there at all—give them a different door. Use this page.

WEEK 1 OF 10

Embracing Your New Identity in Christ

THEME VERSE

So then, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; what is old has passed away—look, what is new has come!

— 2 Corinthians 5:17

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

Who are you, really? Most of us answer that with a job, a failure, a success, or someone else's verdict. God does not. When you come to Christ, you are not an improved version of your former self. You are a new creation. The old has passed away. The new has come. Your identity is no longer rooted in past mistakes, worldly labels, personal achievements, or the opinions of others. It is defined by who you are in the risen Christ: beloved, forgiven, accepted, and empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Too often we measure ourselves by performance and let shifting voices decide our worth. Yet the only trustworthy source of identity is God Himself—the One who created you, loves you unconditionally, sent His Son to redeem you, and makes you new by His Spirit. At the moment you received Jesus as Lord and Savior, you were born again. That is a change of nature. When God defines you, you stand on ground that does not move or change.

In the French novel, Les Misérables, the main character, Jean Valjean, stole the bishop's silver. When the police brought him back, the bishop called him brother and said his soul now belonged to God. That word broke the old name. For the first time in years, someone treated him with dignity instead of contempt. Christ has done more than that for you. He did not merely pardon a thief. He made you His.

You are a child of God. A saint with a new nature. A member of Christ's body. A citizen of His kingdom. Those are not titles you will earn later. They are names God already uses for you. These four truths are living realities, meant to shape ordinary days. These ten weeks will not ask you to become someone else. They will ask you to live as the person God has already made you in Christ. Walk from that name.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

You were not improved. You were made new.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Each morning this week, read 2 Corinthians 5:17 aloud. Then write one old label you still wear, and the name God gives instead. When the old label surfaces, speak the new one.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read 2 Corinthians 5:17. Ask: "What old label am I still wearing that God has already replaced?" Thank Him for one new name He has given you.

WEEK 2 OF 10

Walking in Your New Identity

THEME VERSE

So then, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; what is old has passed away—look, what is new has come!

— 2 Corinthians 5:17

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

Imagine every label the world has pinned on you—failure, addict, victim, achiever, outcast—losing its power to name you. In its place stands a God-given identity that is secure, powerful, and eternal. That is the reality for everyone who has trusted Christ. You are no longer defined by your past or your performance. You are defined by union with the risen Lord. The Bible gives four foundational truths that anchor that new life.

A new name has four directions. Vertical: you belong to the Father. Internal: you have a new nature. Horizontal: you belong to a people. External: you represent a kingdom. You do not pick a favorite and ignore the rest. As a child, you come as a loved son or daughter. As a saint, you no longer define yourself by failure. As a member, you are no longer isolated. As a citizen, you live as an ambassador in a world that still needs the King.

The first believers in Acts lived all four at once. Under fire. Still children. Still saints. Still one family. Still citizens of another King. They came from different backgrounds, yet they functioned as one people. Their trials did not cancel the identity. The identity held them in the trial. The same four names hold you now.

Which of the four feels easiest to believe today? Which one feels hardest? The hard one is usually where the old life is still running the conversation. Feelings may not always follow walking in a new identity. It is agreeing with God in one direction at a time, then taking the step as that new person. Speak the name. Then walk in it.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

Your new identity has four directions. Walk in all of them.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Name which of the four feels hardest to believe—child, saint, member, or citizen. Each day, thank God for that one name and take one small action that matches it.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read 2 Corinthians 5:17. Name the one identity that feels hardest. Pray, "Father, I agree with You about who I am. Help me walk in it today."

WEEK 3 OF 10

You Are a Child of God

THEME VERSE

But to all who have received him—those who believe in his name—he has given the right to become God's children.

— John 1:12

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

If you have received Him, you have the right to be called God's child. That is legal standing in the household of God. The Almighty who spoke the universe into being now declares you His own. In this relationship you find unmatched security, dignity, and access to the Father's heart. You approach Him as a son or daughter, able to cry "Abba, Father." You cannot have any closer relationship with God than this.

CHILD is how that lands. He CONFORMS you to the likeness of Jesus by the patient work of His Spirit. He HEARS you when you pray. Your words reaches the ears of your Heavenly Father. He INDWELLS you with His Spirit, who testifies that you belong. He LOVES you always, unconditionally, and sacrificially. That love holds through success and failure, joy and sorrow. He DISCIPLINES you as a Father. Correction is not rejection. It is proof that you belong.

You are also a co-heir with Christ. You do not earn a seat at the table. You were given one. Everything that belongs to the Son—grace, hope, resurrection, the joy of the Father's presence—is now shared with you. You are not a distant relative hoping for a small inheritance. You are a child and a fellow heir, a rightful heir. That truth should fill you with gratitude and hope, even in present trials.

You are adopted. A new name. New garments. A ring. Full rights and privileges. A new and different status. This is what the Father has done for you. You were once bound. Now you are free. You are no longer defined by the chains that once held you. Rest there. You were on your own. Now you are a member of the Royal family. Your true Father is the King.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

You belong. The seat at the table was given—and it has not been taken back.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Declare each morning: "I am a child of God, fully accepted in Christ." If shame rises, speak Romans 8:16. Come back to the table the same day.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read John 1:12 and Romans 8:16. Declare: "I am a child of God, fully accepted in Christ." Thank the Father that He has not sent you out of the family.

WEEK 4 OF 10

You Are a Saint with a New Nature

THEME VERSE

There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

— Romans 8:1

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

Saint is not a title reserved for super-pious believers who have done extraordinary deeds. Paul used it for ordinary believers. God does not see you through the lens of past sin or present struggle. He sees you in Christ—holy, righteous, and set apart. This identity is not earned by moral achievement. It is given at new birth. You are so called because you have received a new, righteous nature in Christ.

SAINT is how that lands. He SEES you as completely righteous in Christ—clothed in a righteousness that is not your own. He ACCEPTS Christ's payment for every sin—past, present, and future. He IMPARTS righteousness into you. The God who saved you is still at work within you. He has NEUTRALIZED the power sin once had over you. The flesh may still tempt. It is no longer master. He TOLERATES no condemnation of you. "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

Many still introduce themselves as sinners simply forgiven. That self-picture invites defeat. If you believe you are a sinner at the core, sin will feel inevitable. The truer word is this: you are a righteous saint who sometimes stumbles when the flesh deceives you. Fix your eyes on Jesus. You are free to live in line with who you now are.

Picture the courtroom. The verdict is guilty. Then the Judge steps down, pays the penalty, and declares you not guilty. You walk out with a clean name. That is justification. No accusation can stand, because God Himself has justified you. When the old charge returns, do not linger in shame. Rise. Return. Speak the new name. You are not striving to become a saint. In Christ, you already are one.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

God does not call you a sinner managing an old nature. He calls you a saint with a new one.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

When condemnation speaks this week, stop and say Romans 8:1 aloud. Then name one way the new nature can answer that same situation.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Romans 8:1 and 1 Corinthians 3:16. Say: "There is no condemnation. I am a saint with a new nature." Sit ten seconds in that sentence.

WEEK 5 OF 10

You Are a Member of the Body of Christ

THEME VERSE

Now you are Christ's body, and each of you is a member of it.

— 1 Corinthians 12:27

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

You were not saved into a private faith. From the moment of new birth, you were joined to Christ as a living part of His body. He is the Head. You belong to Him, and you belong to one another. God never intended the Christian life to be lived in isolation. Nothing grows or thrive in isolation. His creation is relational because the Triune God is relational.

MEMBER is how that lands. He MADE you part of His spiritual family, a member of God's household. He EQUIPPED you with gifts for the good of others. He MATCHED you with real needs in the body. When you serve in your place, the whole church is strengthened. He BAPTIZED you into one body for unity that crosses old dividing lines. He ENLISTED you to bear fruit that remains. He RELOCATED you into an interdependent people. You are essential. The body needs you.

Think of the human body. The eye does not say to the hand, "I do not need you." Hidden parts matter as much as visible ones. When one member suffers, the whole body feels it. When one is strengthened, the whole body benefits. The church is meant to work the same way under the Head, in love, each one doing its work.

You are also a branch joined to the Vine. Fruit does not come by straining alone. It comes by remaining. Apart from Him, you can do nothing of lasting value. Your gifts matter. Your place in the family is unique and purposeful. This week, take one concrete step toward the body: serve, encourage, or participate. A coal pulled from the fire cools. Stay in the fire.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

You were joined to a people. Isolation is not how a new identity stays warm.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

This week, take one concrete step toward the body: encourage one believer, use one gift, or show up where you have been absent. Come ready to say what happened.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read 1 Corinthians 12:27 and John 15:5. Ask: "Where have I pulled away from the body?" Pray, "Lord, join me again to Your people this week."

WEEK 6 OF 10

You Are a Citizen of God's Kingdom

THEME VERSE

But our citizenship is in heaven—and we also eagerly await a savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ.

— Philippians 3:20

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

Your papers have changed. "Our citizenship is in heaven," the Bible declares. You still walk the same streets of this earth, but your true home and your true King are elsewhere. You no longer live as one bound to passing systems. You represent a realm that cannot be shaken. Your life is meant to reflect the values, priorities, and purposes of your King. You hold a kind of work visa here, so that His purposes can be done while you remain.

CITIZEN is how that lands. He CHOSE you for His unshakable kingdom, to proclaim the virtues of the One who called you out of darkness. He INSTALLED you as a priest to worship, intercede, and represent Christ. He TOLD you the secrets of the kingdom in Scripture. He ILLUMINATED you to be light in a dark place. He delivered you from the kingdom of darkness and transferred you to the kingdom of His Son. He ENTRUSTED you with keys for prayer. He NAMED you an ambassador.

An ambassador does not live for himself. He represents the King in a foreign land. His words carry weight. His conduct must match the King's character. Once you were a stranger, without hope and without God. Now you are a fellow citizen with the saints and a member of God's household. You enjoy the rights of that citizenship, and you carry its message: Be reconciled to God.

You do not visit the kingdom on Sunday and return to another allegiance on Monday. Earthly empires rise and fall. Your King does not. Unlike an earthly ambassador who may be recalled, your commission is lasting. Live this week with the dignity of someone whose citizenship is God's Kingdom. Shine where you stand. Represent Him where you already are. Invite others to come under His gracious rule.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

You already belong to another kingdom. Represent it where you stand.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Pray each morning: "King Jesus, I am Your ambassador today." Look for one conversation or act that represents Him—at home, at work, or in your town.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Philippians 3:20 and 2 Corinthians 5:20. Pray: "King Jesus, I am Your ambassador today. Make my words and choices match the kingdom I belong to."

WEEK 7 OF 10

Choosing Wisely with Your New Identity

THEME VERSE

Do not be conformed to this present world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.

— Romans 12:2

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

Our decisions follow our self-image. What you believe about yourself shapes what you choose. “What would Jesus do?” can feel distant because Jesus was perfect and we are not. It is easy to dismiss, “He would choose that, but that is not who I am.” Your new identity gives you better questions.

What would a child of God choose? What would a saint with a new nature choose? What would a member of the body choose? What would a citizen of the kingdom choose? How you see yourself decides what you choose. On the outside, you may look the same. On the inside, God has given you a new name. Adoption papers change the family even when the feeling lags. It is foolish to keep deciding from the old identity.

Put off the old self. Put on the new. Set your mind on things above. God has given you a compass for the road: pursue intimacy with Him, become like Christ in character, build up His people, and represent Him to those who do not yet know Him. Those four priorities will not make every choice easy. Good decisions still require a quiet mind, a yielded will, and a correct picture of who you now are. They will keep you from wandering. They flow from your new identity.

An old GPS keeps sending you to an old address through old paths. The Holy Spirit redirects you toward the kingdom—toward love instead of bitterness, integrity instead of ease, obedience instead of the old route. Quiet the noise long enough to hear Him. Then choose from the name God has already given you and not from the old names that are obsolete, void, defunct, and irrelevant.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

How you see yourself decides what you choose. Choose from the new name.

THIS WEEK’S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Before one real decision this week, pause and ask all four questions: What would a child, a saint, a member, and a citizen choose? Act on the answer. Write what changed.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Romans 12:2. Name one decision in front of you. Ask the four questions aloud. Pray, “Spirit, recalculate my route.”

WEEK 8 OF 10

Living Out Your New Identity Daily

THEME VERSE

Therefore, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him.

— Colossians 2:6

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

These truths are not meant to stay on the mental shelf. Child. Saint. Member. Citizen. They are meant to shape ordinary moments. The invitation this week is simple: move from knowing the name to walking in it. Embracing your identity turns common moments into places of growth, obedience, and joy. Knowledge without practice will not hold you when the day gets busy.

Begin the day by speaking the truth aloud. “I am a child of God. Because He loves me unconditionally, I will rest in His acceptance today.” That small practice renews the mind before the day starts crowding your mind with other thoughts. In temptation, remember you are a saint—sin’s power has been broken. In relationships, act as a member—love and serve. In trouble, rest as a child—your Father hears. In the world, shine as a citizen—represent your King.

A butterfly does not crawl back into the chrysalis each morning. There is no going back. The metamorphosis is finished. Daily life is the choice to spread the wings you already have. Old instincts will tug. Storms will come. Some days the wings will feel heavy. You may even crawl a few steps. That does not put you back in the old body. The Spirit reminds you who you are and lifts you again.

You received Christ by faith. You walk the same way—one ordinary day at a time, in Him., by faith. Speak the name when you wake. Catch the day’s provision as you go—a verse, a prayer, a word from another believer to carry the name throughout the day. Live as the person God has already made you, today.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

The new identity is a gift. Daily living is how you stay inside it.

THIS WEEK’S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Each morning, speak this declaration: “In Christ I am a child of God, a saint with a new nature, a member of His body, and a citizen of His kingdom.” Live the first hour as if it were true.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Colossians 2:6. Speak the four names slowly. Pray, “Lord Jesus, I continue in You today.” Then live the next hour as if that prayer were true.

WEEK 9 OF 10

Living a Supernatural Life

THEME VERSE

Now to him who by the power that is working within us is able to do far beyond all that we ask or think.

— Ephesians 3:20

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

In Christ, you have been called to an extraordinary, supernatural existence. This is not by white-knuckle efforts. It is a life that flows from who you already are—child, saint, member, citizen—empowered by the Spirit and the finished work of Christ. “It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me.” The same power that raised Jesus is at work in you.

You have been given power to tear down strongholds, to overcome the world’s pull, and to do what you cannot do alone. You have been set free from the bondage of sin and guilt, from the spirit of rejection, from deception, from anxiety, and from fear. Peace is the guard God sets over a heart that trusts Him. Jesus came so that you may have life, and have it abundantly. Triumph is overcoming any and every hardship and challenge through the One who loves you.

Adversity still comes. It becomes the place where character is formed, where God’s workmanship is displayed, and where you remember this is not a playground but a battlefield. He calls your true identity out. That’s how you overcome. In all these things you are more than a conqueror through Him who loved you. In Christ, you cannot ultimately lose.

Three simple steps keep you inside this life. Believe what God says about you rather than what any other voice shouts or whispers. Renew your mind with the names He has given. Thank Him for what is already yours. Gratitude aligns the heart with the gift. Pick one area this week. Depend on the life already in you.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

Supernatural living is not trying harder. It is depending on the life already in you.

THIS WEEK’S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Name one area where you have been living by natural effort. Each day thank God that His power is already at work in you there, then take the next step by faith—not by strain.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read Ephesians 3:20. Name the area you have been managing alone. Pray, “Holy Spirit, live Your life through me here.” Be still for ten seconds.

WEEK 10 OF 10

Walking Worthy of Your Calling

THEME VERSE

Remain in me, and I will remain in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me.

— John 15:4

2-MINUTE LESSON SUMMARY

In Christ, you are a new creation. The old has gone. The new has come. That is not a temporary change of status. It is a permanent transformation at the deepest level. Child. Saint. Member. Citizen. Those names always hold. Let them shape every part of your life for your joy and for the glory of God.

Becoming who you already are is both immediate and ongoing. It begins with faith—believing what God declares—and continues through daily surrender, renewed thinking, and obedient living. There will be triumph and struggle. You do not walk alone. The God who called you is at work within you to conform you to His Son. Return to these names when doubt, temptation, or weariness presses in.

You are not a beggar scraping by, or a slave chained to fear and self-effort. You have been adopted into the Royal family. The Father has called you to a royal procession—not a private stroll, but a visible walk through the streets of this world. Walk with dignity, not arrogance: your worth is settled in Christ. Walk with humility: you were once a beggar who received mercy. Walk with purpose: every step advances the King's agenda. The world is watching how you walk.

These ten weeks were not meant to leave you with a sense of completion. Identity in Christ is not a certificate. It is your life. You live out your identity by remaining in Christ. The King Himself walks with you by His Spirit. So, to see if you are living worthily as your new self, ask how closely you are remaining in Christ.

MAIN KEY TAKE-AWAY

You do not finish this identity. You remain in the One who gave it.

THIS WEEK'S ASSIGNMENT

Do this one thing. Come ready to share what happened.

Pray once each morning: "Lord Jesus, I choose to remain in You today." When an old label returns, treat it as an invitation to speak the new name—not as proof that nothing changed.

Suggested close (60–90 seconds): Read John 15:4-5 and 2 Corinthians 5:17. Pray once, slowly: "Lord Jesus, I choose to remain in You today." Then live the next hour as the person You already say I am.
